

THEO KEYSERLING

MANAGING DIRECTOR
MERIDIAN GROUP PARTNERS
FOUNDER - THEOPROTOCOL

In 2010 Theo Keyserling formed Meridian Group Partners. Her unique knowledge of international and domestic executive finance and accounting searches, coupled with her management expertise, led her to establish Meridian Group. Theo is tasked with all of Meridian Group's operational and financial searches.

Prior to joining Meridian Group, Theo worked for an US based international search firm placing executive level senior financial talent into medium to large, global organizations. She worked in both the German and Atlanta offices and lived in Germany while servicing her US based clients in Europe. Theo is well versed in both European and North American search processes, and has the capability to navigate in both markets simultaneously. Prior to this role, Theo was the President of a national boutique recruitment firm that specialized in project based and onsite recruitment for US companies undergoing major transitions. Throughout the three years of her leadership, the company flourished from one office in Atlanta to four offices nationwide. Theo has a vast global network of operational, accounting and finance talent that she has worked with over the last decade.

In 2018, Theo Co-Founded The Office Protocol which is a professional blog focused on business protocol. Theo speaks on a national basis to both large and small groups regarding appropriate impression management and business protocol.

Follow her on the Socials

@TheOprotocol
www.theoprotocol.com

MERIDIAN
GROUP PARTNER

